Dear Paula,

Please accept our sincerest thanks for presenting a professional development session to the Royal Children's Hospital Social Work Department. Despite being rushed for time, you successfully presented a very useful and practical session that provided us with meaningful information about how to enhance the emotional wellbeing and resilience of children. The feedback from staff after your session was overwhelmingly positive, and we are certainly interested in inviting you to return for further training.

I would especially like to thank you for agreeing to present to our department at no charge. Given we have no budget for professional development, it is often difficult to secure experienced and highly acclaimed speakers to attend, so your attendance at our session was very much appreciated.

Yours Sincerely,

Janine Kemp
